The Chairman welcomed Jo Lane from the Alzheimer's Society and Warrick Allen from Home Instead Senior Care Conwy and Denbighshire to the meeting who provided members with an overview of their scheme for Abergele to become a dementia friendly Town. Jo Lane explained that from a survey published that living with dementia can also effect the family and friends of the sufferer and studied how the individual felt after they had received a diagnoses.

50% of people felt that they were no longer a part of the community and did not feel that the local community is geared around this group. It is hoped that through this scheme that communities will come forward and support the scheme, such as local businesses, can raise awareness and make changes for people to continue to use the services and dispel the myths, together with support for the families and friends. Of the 45,000 people in the Conwy County area, 2307 have been diagnosed with dementia and this could double or triple in the near future.

The perception that a sufferer has when they walk into a business due to changes in their vision could be minimised by changing the colour of the mat at an entrance to that of a lighter colour.

Four towns in the North Wales area have achieved the status Flint, Buckley, Prestatyn and Porthmadoc. Mold is near to completion, four more areas are looking to achieve Abergele, Penrhyn Bay, Llanfairfechan, and Llanrwst are interested.

There are seven areas to work towards.

- To set up a steering group of people who are willing to lead on the scheme. This should be multi-disciplinary of private, public and voluntary organisations.
- The group will need to be constituted with a Chairman, Secretary etc.

- Plan – to raise awareness through social media i.e. Facebook, leaflets, Dementia friends (45 minute session for all), Voice of the people – through the Alzheimer's Society.
- Encourage all groups to attend i.e. taxi, bus, Zumba, book club etc.
- Ask organisations if they would be affiliated with the cause
- Report to the society every six to twelve months with achievements

The Abergele group is looking for a leader, Homeinstead are willing to provide the admin. It will be a once a month commitment and the achievements will need coordinating. The steering group will be responsible to ensure that the businesses are doing what is required and the set up process is normally six to nine months. In Buckley the Mayor is involved in the group and in Mold there are two members of the Town Council on the group. Ty Cariad and Cartrefi Conwy are on the group but do not wish to be the Chairman.

The Chairman thanked Jo and Warrick for attending and asked them to keep the Town Council informed on the progress of the group.

Standing orders were reinstated
